KAREN ZAYA, University of Michigan
On Regularity Properties for Fluid Equations

We discuss a newly developed regularity criterion for the three-dimensional Boussinesq equations, which only imposes a condition on the low modes of the velocity u. The key tool in the development of this weaker regularity criterion is linked to the dissipation wave number.